

The background image is a wide-angle photograph of a desert landscape. In the foreground, there's a small town or village with some buildings and trees on a hillside. The middle ground is dominated by a vast, rugged mountain range with deep valleys and ridges. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds. The text is overlaid on the center of the image.

College of the Desert Palm Springs Campus: from Master Plan to Schematic Design

Master Plan Principles – May 2020

ESTABLISHING THE DESIGN FRAMEWORK

A Campus for Today and Well into the Future forward thinking

Learning Happens Everywhere

Variety of Spaces for Students

Students Gather Everywhere on Campus – Inside and Out

A Variety of Places to Engage the Community community

focused

The Mobility Hub Welcomes Students and the Community Alike

The Community Engages with the Campus in Multiple Ways

The Event Center Welcomes the Community

community
focused

A Strong Visual and Physical Connection Between Inside and Outside

Outdoor Classrooms Extend Education from Indoors to Outdoors

Seamless Integration Between Inside and Outside Spaces

Farrell Drive Provides Welcoming Entry to Campus

Using Regional Materials – in Buildings and Landscape contextual materiality

Energy and Activity of the Campus is Transmitted to the Outside

Every Aspect of Design Reflects a Sustainable/Resilient Approach a model of stewardship and resiliency

